Stillyano

Once again, this is a return for a band who entertained two years ago and had to be asked to come back - they are that good!! Originally formed in Exeter in 2003, and having gigged around the South-West, they have gained notoriety for being a band not to be taken lightly or dismissed as 'just another local band'. They have garnered a reputation for top quality musicianship, top-notch original material and impeccably tight and talented performances.
